The main focus of this story is the obstacles that the main couple face being in an inter-racial relationship, and the judgements that come from the people around. As their mutual attraction grows, they struggle with their preconceived notions and fight to keep things above board.

Timothy has been a teacher at various institutions of learning for over four years. She really liked him, but she was always second-guessing about whether she should be seen out in public with. Beside the fact this book has been so fantastic I feel a strong connection with Julian not only because we are both in interracial relationship but also because how strong and persistent this character is.
