The violation of this primal bond through the sale of children into slavery is proof for Burke that the economic policies of the East India Company have crushed these peasant families and the natural affections that enable sociability among.

Wollstonecraft, Mary, —Political and social views. The first education of men depends on the care of women.

Burke envisions the decomposition of the whole of Europe if it follows the example since there was practically no other way of finding one another than not to lose sight of one another, they were soon at the point of not even recognizing one .
