Getting carried in a casket by 6 casket bearers to the hearse immediately after a funeral, right before the funeral procession. Then, after the funeral procession.

Carried By Six | The Creeping Bent Organisation

I've most commonly heard this phrase used to rationalize self defense, particularly self defense that results in the death of your assailant.

Lyrics containing the term: carried/6

I've heard it repeated dozens of times: "It's better to be tried by twelve than carried by six." What does this cliché really mean anyway?.
