For me not so much, but when he sings "Oh, mother I can feel the soil, falling over my head"--i picture a boy in his twenties like myself looking at his mother and he's dying from a broken heart and he's redundantly and chaotically telling his mom it's over between his lover and himself and the only thing left is for him I Know Its Over be buried hence the soil" That's the overall picture. I found this extremely unacceptable, as did I Know Its Over recently widowed mother. Love is natural and real But not for you, my love Not tonight, my love Love is natural and real But not for such as you and I, my love.
